

These sentences make up the body of a paragraph about "The Worst Restaurant in Town."

- 1. Print out this sheet,*
- 2. Then use a pair of scissors to cut the sentences up.*
- 3. Then place them into correct order on the outline sheet, which comes with this sheet.*

It is modern, and in very bad taste.

They rush you to order, and they rush you to finish your food.

The main dishes all cost over $25.

It is extremely overpriced.

The décor is unusually ugly.

Sometimes you have to yell at them to get their attention.

The art on the walls is horrible.

One small dinner salad is $12.

The employees are rude and annoying.

The colors of the walls and furniture do not match.